

To those who have yet to experience the magic of the stage, let us “pointe you to the barre.” You don’t have to know your arias from your arpeggios to experience the city’s tempo. From ballets and bands to symphonies and theater troupes, Memphis raises the curtain on its talented and diverse performing arts family.

The 2013–2014 overture has begun ...
Take your seats and enjoy the show!
